Newly appointed Judge Jason W. Given is congratulated by the retiring Judge Van Blanchard II that has served the Coshocton County as Judge from December 2011 through April 2023. Judge Blanchard led the Court and enhanced access to justice with technology, legal representation, programming, state and national initiatives, and research. Judge Given looks forward to build upon the foundation and strengthen services for the community as a small court leader.

2023: A YEAR OF REFLECTION and TRANSITION

The start of Fall 2011, local Attorney Van Blanchard II did not plan to assume the Bench at the Court of Common Pleas, Probate and Juvenile Division. The untimely death of Honorable David W. Burns after serving just over two years of a six-year term created the possibility of the new challenge. Van was native to Coshocton and came from a family of attorneys, practicing with his father and sister while having other siblings also in the profession. Spending some 26 years in the profession before the appointment, he completed his Juris Doctorate at The Ohio State University, Michael E Moritz College of Law and was admitted to practice in Ohio in 1986.

Prior to joining the Judiciary, Blanchard worked tirelessly in both the public and private sectors as an attorney, which is not uncommon in rural Ohio. He served for ten years as an assistant prosecuting attorney with the Coshocton County Prosecutor's Office and was an assistant Public Defender for a period with the Public Defender's Office. His skill in prosecution often led him to be lead prosecutor in the most challenging cases, and others were reluctant to face him in the courtroom due to his skill, detail, and thoroughness which combined with success of conviction.

His legal career also included practicing as a private attorney for over 26 years where he represented numerous local individuals in all facets of probate, estate, family and corporate law. He also spent time as a staff attorney with the United States Treasury, with a wealth of skill in accounting and finance.

Upon assuming his role on the Bench in December, 2011, the Court immediately began evaluating all areas of operations and quickly started to assess needed services for the public that we served. A three-year study and analysis of the opioid epidemic, child welfare case studies, and community agency collaboration facilitated by the State led to the establishment of the Family Dependency Treatment Court in 2014.

Services and Court Enhancements over the next 12 years also included but are not limited to:

- Enhanced Community Substance Use Treatment System and service delivery for pregnant mothers
- Access to Attorneys for indigent civil case litigants
- Increased technology for remote, hybrid and other court hearings
- Enhanced case management system
- Increased youth programs through competitive grants
- Enhanced civil docket family services
- Enhanced MOUs with qualified providers for best practice services within the community
- Participation in Statewide System Improvement Program and the National Quality Improvement Center
- Ohio Quality Hearing Process Evaluation
- Supreme Court of Ohio Technology & Security Enhancement Grants
- Adult Protective Services Grants
- Participation in state workgroups to assist in developing Best Practice Bench Cards, Improvements through the use of technology, revisions of Supreme Court Rules of Superintendence
- Public access to records through microfilm to digital conversion
- Local training opportunities for providers, including:

- Top research doctors regarding infant and toddler development
- Probate Roundtable regarding records conversion facilitated by Supreme Court of Ohio
- Guardian and Guardian Ad Litem Training sessions locally
- Other collaborative efforts to contribute to better systems service delivery

As Judge Blanchard weighed his options to transition to his other life interests, he decided while he is healthy and able, it made sense to transition to the world of retirement. He planned and facilitated a smooth transition of the bench to Jason W. Given, another native to Coshocton that had a lifetime of experience and work in our community and a passion to continue the work that has been ongoing for many years with the court.

Judge Blanchard made the official transition to retirement on April 30, 2023 and Judge Given assumed the bench on May 1, 2023. As Judge Given had some familiarity with the Court from his days in both private practice and as Juvenile Prosecutor and elected County Prosecuting Attorney, he knew this transition was one that he gracefully accepted with honor to have been appointed to the new role.

Judge Given met with staff, reviewed budgetary and financial processes, overall court operation assessment, and looked at programming in place while reviewing services to continue with the Court and Community. Judge Given has become very involved as a new Judge in the Ohio Judicial Conference, Probate and Juvenile work committees and also made visits to the Supreme Court of Ohio to meet with Specialized Docket and Children and Families Staff as well as the Director of Court Services. He meets with mentor Judges and continues to be involved with community organizations.

While any judicial transition can be a challenging experience for the community and staff, the past year has shown that with positive judicial leadership, commitment, perseverance and support, we can continue to march in a positive direction for better service to the community in which we live.

In honor of Judge Blanchard and respect for the commitment, passion and support shown from Judge Given, it is with appreciation that I can present this tribute, reflection and statistics for the past year to our community.

Sincerely,

Doug Schonauer

Doug Schonauer, CCE, Court Administrator
