

COURT OF COMMON PLEAS, COSHOCTON COUNTY

PROBATE & JUVENILE DIVISION

2009

ANNUAL REPORT

DAVID W. BURNS, JUDGE

LINDA H. WEBER, MAGISTRATE
DOUG SCHONAUER, COURT ADMINISTRATOR
KATHY JONES, CHIEF DEPUTY CLERK

INTRODUCTION

The Coshocton County Common Pleas, Probate & Juvenile Court Division moved to its present location in August 2002 from the Main Courthouse. The Peoples Bank & Trust Building at 426 Main Street is most commonly recognized by locals as the “Hay Jewelers” Building, which was in operation until the 1970’s. From the 1970’s until renovation in 2001-2, the building had little use and was mainly vacant. Originally a bank building, as many as five various vaults were located in the building which did not have an elevator or handicapped accessibility to the upper or lower floor. Parts of the long, narrow building are still only accessible by stairs, but for all public functions the building is handicapped accessible. The main vault of the bank now serves as a juvenile holding cell, and is monitored by one of 26 cameras that can be viewed by staff at every workstation.

The Court staff consists of a Judge and Magistrate, 13 other fulltime staff, 3 part-time staff members, and a Sheriff’s Deputy for building security. In addition, the Court has 3 contract Guardian Ad Litem Investigators and an Adoption Assessor. The Court also utilized the services of a part-time Magistrate in 2009 and a volunteer for taking homework to Juvenile Detention.

The general operations of the Court focus on Probate and Juvenile issues, and the staff strive to serve the public in an efficient and effective manner. The Court operates under the philosophy that we are “open to all, trusted by all, and dispense justice for all” that fall within our jurisdiction. Community safety, competency development, and accountability, which includes protection and advice for the adults and youth that we serve is the primary focus of our operation. In addition to dispensing justice as a deterrent to criminal behavior, we keep official records, settle disputes, and rehabilitate those that are served by the Court.

Technology upgrades have also allowed the Court to keep pace with the 21st century. The Court has plans to utilize imaging for records retrieval and storage, GPS and electronic ankle monitoring, video conferencing for meetings and court hearings, and electronic calendar scheduling. In addition, Blackberry devices that are synchronized with the Court Computer system allow for probation staff to stay current with issues throughout the workday.

The adoption of Local Rules in 2009 and 2010 allow for those that use the services of the Court to have a guide as to how certain court functions are addressed locally.

David W. Burns, Judge

General Court Information

Approximately 509 hearings were handled by the Judge and 357 by the Magistrate, for a total of 866. These do not reflect that actual number of cases heard, as many hearings, such as traffic and drug court have multiple cases in court at the same time.

2 Pass School Bus	2 Improper Backing
2 Expired Plates	2 No License Plate Light
13 Other Individual Violations

Traffic Safety Seminar: First time juvenile traffic offenders are ordered to attend this 1.5 hour program with a parent at the Coshocton Career Center. The session focuses on safety issues for young drivers and responsible driving. Presenters include an Ohio State Highway Patrolman, Coshocton EMT, and accident survivor & Coshocton resident, Clayton Stone.

105 youth attended 5 seminars

Juvenile Traffic Bureau: A new Court Program that allows first time traffic offenders with certain minor violations to enter a written plea and waive the appearance in Court as long as fines, costs, and traffic seminar attendance is met.

41 youth participated in the Violations Bureau**

Alternatives to Jail: A joint venture with Child Support Enforcement Agency looks at alternatives to jail as an option for Adult Child Support Cases that are behind on support payments. The program has agreements with 12 non-profit agencies and 3 private businesses to allow community service work at their sites.

4 adults completed 90 hours**

School Truancy Program: The School Truancy Program is a collaborative effort between the Juvenile Court, Coshocton Job & Family Services, and the Public School System in Coshocton County. The primary goal is to assist schools with compulsory education laws and to identify students with attendance issues. A series of notices are filed with the court and the family of the truant child in an effort to resolve attendance issues. Informal hearings are held in the schools to address attendance issues without having formal court of Job & family Services involvement. If these issues are not resolved, juveniles will have a School Truancy charge filed.

3 Referrals for Neglect Investigation

Juvenile Drug Court Program: Started in 2002, the Coshocton County Juvenile Drug Court Program continues to work with identified offenders that have significant substance abuse histories. Weekly court hearings as well as treatment, mental health counseling, education, and family support are major components to this intensive non-traditional program. The four phase program takes participants one year minimum to complete.

Since its inception, 17 youth successfully graduated

6 youth were terminated unsuccessfully

2 youth moved out of county

4 youth are currently enrolled in the program

THANKS to the following committed Drug Court Team Members:

Muskingum County Juvenile Detention Center: Coshocton County Juvenile Court contracts with the Muskingum County Juvenile Detention Center for use of beds. The Detention Facility is located at 1860 East Pike, Zanesville, Ohio and is a 48 bed state of the art secure detention facility, which has 4 pods of 12 youth, one of which is designated for females. The facility employs two fulltime nurses and contracts with Zanesville City Schools for educational staff. The Detention Facility is approximately 45 miles from Coshocton.

Video Detention Hearings: The Juvenile Court purchased 3 laptop computers equipped with cameras in June, 2009. These computers allow the Court to conduct video detention hearings on those youth that were detained after-hours or on a weekend, thus saving on the burden of transportation by a sheriff's deputy both to and from the Juvenile Detention Facility in Zanesville, Ohio. Once a child is released from the detention facility, parents assume responsibility for transportation of their minor youth. Approximate cost savings per hearing held is $275.00 to the County. 14 total hearings have been held since implementation for an estimated savings of $3,850.

Diversion Program: Coshocton County Juvenile Court received a “Challenge Grant” in 1998 which has enabled the court to hire an employee to develop a Juvenile Diversion Program. The Diversion Officer continues to be paid out of Grant Funds. Diversion was implemented in January 1999. The Diversion Program is designed to give less serious first time offenders an opportunity to amend their wrong doing. This program has an average time period of 90-120 days. If the juvenile completes required programming they will not have a blemish on their record. However, if the juvenile does not complete the Diversion Program they will have their original charges filed against them in Juvenile Court.
